

Long ago in the dreamtime when the earth lay sleeping and nothing moved or grew, lived the Rainbow Serpent.

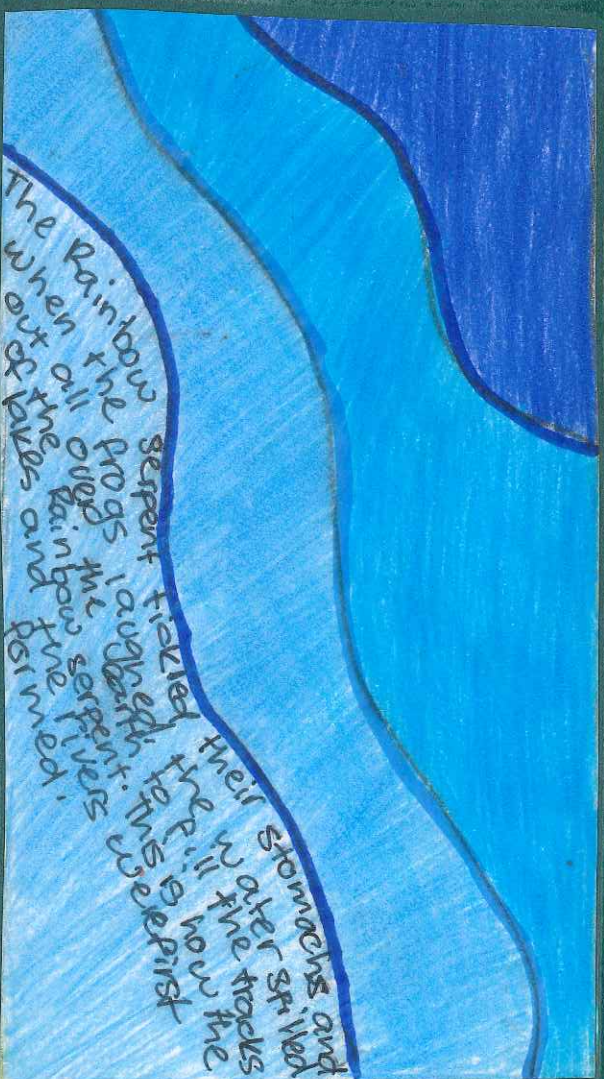

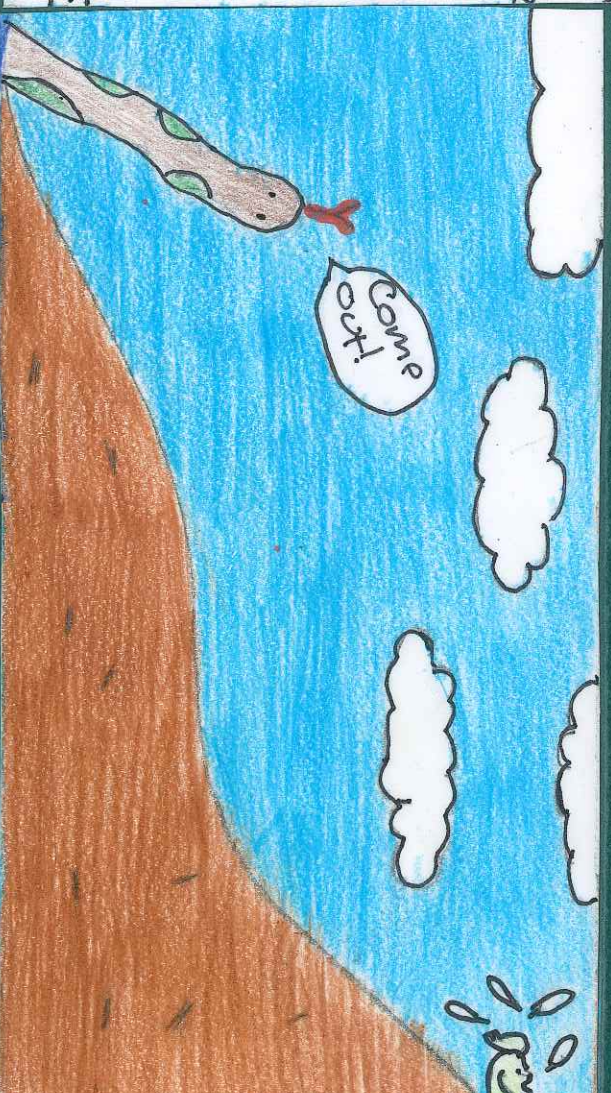

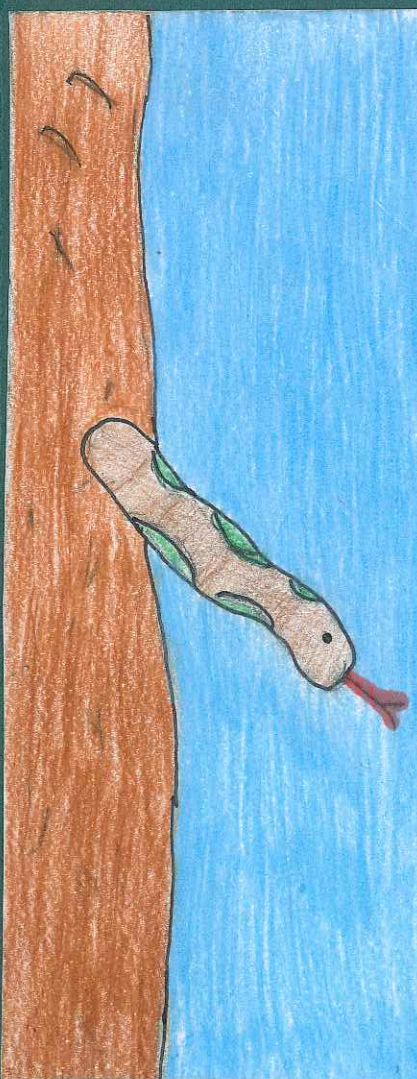

Refreshed from her long slumber she travelled far and wide leaving winding tracks from her huge body and then returning to the place she had appeared.

The frogs came out slowly as their bellies were full with water which they had stored during their long sleep.

Then one day the Rainbow Serpent awoke and came out from beneath the earth.

THE Rainbow SERPENT

by
Tanya
+ Billy

