

Tiddalick the Frog

Once upon a time, a long time ago, in Dreamtime, lived a frog called Tiddalick.

One very warm morning, he woke up with feeling very, thirsty.

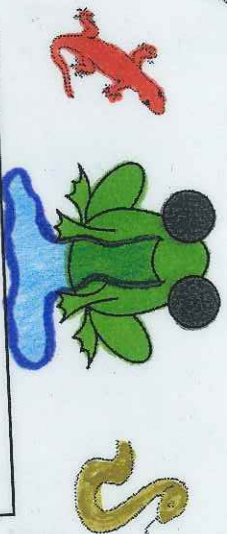

NO WATER
OH NO!

He drank and he drank and he kept drinking until all the fresh water in the entire billabong was gone!

If they could make him laugh, then all the water would come spilling out of his mouth back into the billabong.

They knew Tiddalick had drunk all the water. They knew they needed to come up with a plan to get the water back, but they didn't know how.

Let's make him laugh.

The snake made all these different shapes and made Tiddalick laugh.

HA HA HA

He started to drink the fresh water.

Tiddalick was the largest frog in the entire world.

All the animals jumped with joy and started taking big gulps of water.

The water came gushing out of his mouth and filled the billabong back up with water.
